1. A large number of railroad employees (? Japanese, Soviet, Soviet repatriates from China) will arrive in Manchuria in the near future, probably by August, to take over the operation of the Chinese Changchun Railroad.
2. Seventy Japanese railroad technicians, captured in Manchuria by the Soviet army and given intensive training by the Soviets near the Soviet border, have already arrived in Harbin, with twenty Soviet employees, who wear the uniform of the railroad administration and live at the Nankang (南岗) (section of Harbin) Railroad Bureau.

// the seventy Japanese, the twenty Soviet employees, or both groups?
